WHAT DOES VCP FINANCIAL LLC DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

Why?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

What?

The types of personal information we collect, and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and Income, Investments, Outstanding Debt
- Account Balances and Account Transactions
- Payment History and Risk Tolerance

When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

Note: No mobile information will be shared with third parties/affiliates for marketing/promotional purposes. All other categories exclude text messaging originator opt-in data and consent; this information will not be shared with any third parties.

How?

All financial companies need to share clients' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their clients' personal information; the reasons VCP Financial LLC chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.
